1. What is the best way to contact Dr. Czura outside of class?

2. If you have to miss an exam (Lecture Exam or Lab Practical) due to illness when can you make it up?

3. Does Dr. Czura require you to bring your Martini textbook to lecture?

4. What should you do if you have to miss a weekly quiz to insure that you do not get a zero for the assignment?

5. What day of the week are your quizzes on?

6. What is the last possible date you can withdraw from this course, assuming you are a responsible student throughout the semester and present Dr. Czura with the proper paperwork?

7. Who is the primary or first author of your required laboratory book?

8. If you got 52 questions correct on a 65-question lab exam, what would be your percent grade on that exam?

9. What is the letter equivalent grade to your answer in the previous question?

10. a. What is the minimum number of hours per week you should expect to spend studying outside of class for this course, both lecture and lab material, according to the course outline?

b. How many hours per week do you plan to spend studying this material?