Extra-Credit Questions

10 points: complete, considerable detail, excellent writing skills, no spelling/grammar mistakes
9 points: complete, detailed, very good writing skills, few spelling/grammar mistakes
8 points: complete, detailed, average writing skills, some spelling/grammar mistakes
7 points: mostly complete, detailed, average writing skills, some spelling/grammar mistakes
6 points: mostly complete, some details, weak writing skills, many spelling/grammar mistakes
0-5 points: incomplete, few details, weak writing skills, many spelling/grammar mistakes

ALL ANSWERS MUST USE COMPLETE SENTENCES & DOUBLE SPACING

1. From what college/university/institution/organization is the presenter, and what is his or her area of expertise?

2. Beyond simply rephrasing the title, what is the overarching scientific question/problem the presenter is trying to address?

3. Provide details and examples that support the question/problem being presented.

4. What complexities are involved with investigating this particular scientific question/problem?

5. To what future research does the presenter refer in order to help better understand this particular scientific question/problem?

6. What was the most interesting aspect of the presentation?

7. What was the most confusing aspect of the presentation?

8. If you had the chance to, what question would you ask the presenter?